Membership Guidelines

- I. An applicant should exhibit:
- a. A demonstrated knowledge of, or commitment to international affairs.
 - b. A demonstrated record of leadership in international affairs and/or a position as an opinion-maker within the community, ideally enhanced by an informed view of international issues.
 - c. The capacity and initiative to participate effectively in meeting discussions, and the maturity to participate without the need for recriminations.
- II. Due to the limit on membership and the desire to disseminate membership benefits, attendance by guests is only encouraged so long as the guest is a potential qualified member.
- III. All applicants will be reviewed with the notion that an appropriate balance of interests, ethnicity and gender is in the best interest of the Committee.
